

• Energy and daylight modeling Cost analysis

the impact dynamic glass will have on a project.

Visual renderings

- Dedicated project manager
- Hands-on communication, coordination and training
- On-time material delivery

glaziers, low voltage electricians and occupants.

- Training resources for glaziers, electricians and building occupants
- Videos, handbooks, documentation
- Personalized training available on a project -by-project basis continuously monitors each dynamic glass system so that they can provide immediate troubleshooting, software upgrades and reprogramming.

- Continuous remote monitoring
- Immediate troubleshooting notification

View provides training instructions for the glazier and electrical layout diagrams for the low voltage electrician to assist with cable routing and component placement.

- Design and install guides
- Data/spec sheets
- Electrical layout diagrams
- Shop drawing assistance

Delighting occupants is our goal as a company. We are so committed to customer delight that we assign a dedicated Customer Success Manager to each project to understand customer needs, customize View controls, and ensure their building occupants are delighted.

- Occupant delight
- Immediate customer service

View Field Service technicians will arrive on site after installation to fully inspect the system. verify all componenents are working properly and ensure a smooth commissioning.

- On-site field service technicians
- Comprehensive commissioning before turnover

viewglass.com ©View, Inc. 2017